Nebraska May Clear Things for Candidates

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Nebraska's presidential primary Tuesday could give New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey a clearer idea of their appeal in the farm belt.

Neither entered the presidential race in time to be listed on the ballot, but both have backers working to get impressive write-in totals.

Nebraska voters long have used freely their prerogative of writing in candidates in their presidential primary. Cross-over voting from one party to another, a factor in the Indiana primary, is not permitted in Nebraska.

Listed on the Democratic ballot are Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, winner of the Indiana primary; Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy and President Johnson.

An Associated Press survey of delegate sentiment taken after President Johnson announced he would not run showed Humphrey stands to pick up at least as many delegates as Kennedy from the scramble. McCarthy, however, has more delegate candidates pledged or leaning toward him than either rivals.

Most Republican observers predict an easy victory for former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who out-pollled the late President John F. Kennedy in this state by 148,000 votes in 1960.

There is organized support for Rockefeller and Gov. Ronald Reagan of California. Neither is on the ballot and neither has campaigned in this state. Nixon predicted this week that his vote will equal that of Rockefeller and Reagan combined.

On the GOP ballot with Nixon are former Minnesota Gov. Harold Stassen, who won the Nebraska primary 20 years ago, and American Liberator, an ex-cowboy from Valentine, Neb. Neither is regarded as a serious threat.

The presidential preference primary in this state is little more than a popularity contest where delegates to the two national conventions are voted on separately.

Protests by Students Broken Up

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Student demonstrations at three Midwestern universities have been broken up by police as militant protests continue to disturb the calm of academic life on a number of U.S. campuses.

Police were called in Wednesday night at Marquette University in Milwaukee, Roosevelt University in Chicago and Southern Illinois University in Carbondale.

There was a peaceful ending, however, to a three-day sit-in at Stanford University in California when about 400 youths walked out of the Old Student Union they had held since Monday.

The end came after the Academic Council—the top faculty body—voted to recommend that Stanford president Wallace Sterling set aside the proposed suspensions of seven students who demonstrated against CIA recruiters last fall.

In Chicago police arrested 24 student demonstrators at Roosevelt University after they refused to leave a corridor outside the office of President Rolf A. Weil.

The students, protesting Weil's veto of the full-time hiring of controversial history instructor Staughton Lynd, submitted peacefully to arrest after being threatened with expulsion if they did not leave.

Police said they were charged with trespassing and held on $250 bond each. Weil termed the students' willful law breakers and said they had left the administrative council no choice but to call in police.

Lynd, former Yale professor, defied a State Department ban in 1965 to travel to Communist China and North Vietnam.

University security officials joined city and state police in Carbondale to clear a small group of students who briefly held the office of university President Delyte W. Morris.

Two students were arrested and two others were treated for minor injuries. Six windows were smashed and a door was broken in the house which serves as the president's office.

The demonstration followed two days of general unrest at the 19,000-student university. It was apparently in protest against the university's decision not to sponsor a speaking engagement by Black Power advocate Stokely Carmichael.

In Milwaukee two students were arrested but later released when police broke up a sit-in demonstration by about 400 students attempting to prevent guests from leaving a campus dinner at Marquette University.

The sit-in was sponsored by a group called "Concerned Black Students" to protest the university's alleged lack of concern for the "plight of the black man."

Sentenced for Passing Bogus Money

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Two Paragould men were sentenced to prison here Wednesday after being convicted of conspiring to possess and pass counterfeit money.

U. S. Dist. Judge Gordon E. Young sentenced Cecil L. Ragsdell, 39, to a three-year term and made him eligible for parole after serving seven months.

He sentenced Paul E. Hunt, 47, to a two-year term and made him eligible for parole after five months.

Attorneys for both men said they would appeal the convictions. Both remained free on $1,000 bail each while the appeal is pending.

Hunt and Ragsdell were convicted in federal district court April 16 of conspiring to possess and pass counterfeit $10 and $20 bills in late 1966 and early 1967.

Charged With Slaying of Sheriff

MOUNTAIN HOME, Ark. (AP)—Edwin O. Pitman, 28, of Cotter, charged with first-degree murder, will be arraigned before Circuit Judge Harrell Simpson of Pocahontas at 10 a.m. May 16.

Pitman is charged with the fatal shooting of Baxter County Sheriff Emmett Edmonds, who was slain last Saturday during a jail break.

Pitman was captured early Tuesday after a large manhunt in Baxter County.

2 Transplants Are Reported Progressing

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — One heart transplant patient in St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital has died. Doctors expressed satisfaction today with the progress of two others.

James Cobb, 48, of Alexandria, La., salesman, died Wednesday after receiving the heart of a 15-year-old boy Sunday night.

Everett Claire Thomas, 47, of Phoenix, Ariz., who received a new heart last Friday, was able to walk in a private room to which he was moved Wednesday.

He has a telephone and television in the room that was specially arranged for him. John Stuckwisch, 62, of Alpine, Tex., who Tuesday became the hospital's third heart transplant patient in less than five days, was described as "a little lethargic" but able to respond to commands.

Dr. Denton A. Cooley, who heads the surgical team, indicated Cobb died of infection that resulted from reaction to drugs necessary to prevent tissue rejection.

Court Battle Over Sale of Public Names

By BARRY SCHWEID
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A computer-era privacy battle looms in the Supreme Court over New York state's sale of auto registration data to the highest commercial bidder.

Author Corliss Lamont, a wealthy New Yorker, wants the practice stopped and the state law that authorizes it declared an unconstitutional invasion of privacy.

Computers have become so efficient and so sophisticated, he said recently in an appeal, "a terrifying array of personal information" becomes available at the push of a button.

If sale of auto registration data is permitted, he said, other public records could readily find their way to private hands.

New Yorkers, like car owners everywhere, have to supply the state with certain information when registering a vehicle: name, address, date of birth, sex and the like.

The state then reproduces the registration applications on 35 mm microfilm rolls and sells them, with lists of car owners, to the highest "responsible" bidder.

The information, Lamont said, is then used for unsolicited mail and telephone pitches, especially in the auto trade.

New York sold the list for $36,000 this year to R. L. Polk & Co., a Delaware corporation.

Federal Judge Marvin E. Frankel of New York City dismissed Lamont's suit last June. He said the information sold is not vital or intimate.

Polk, the company that seems to deal with most of the states, says the only exceptions are Alaska, Illinois, Kentucky, South Dakota, Washington and the District of Columbia.

The U.S. Circuit Court in New York City affirmed Frankel's ruling last December.

Last Tuesday, New York City Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz, responding in a brief to Lamont's appeal, told the Supreme Court Harrell Simpson of Pocahontas at 10 a.m. May 16.

Pitman is charged with the fatal shooting of Baxter County Sheriff Emmett Edmonds, who was slain last Saturday during a jail break.

Pitman was captured early Tuesday after a large manhunt in Baxter County.

Obituaries Army Silent on Value of McNamara Wall

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Craig Wood, 67, former Masters and U.S. Open golf champion, was found dead Wednesday in a Palm Beach hotel room. Authorities said he apparently died Tuesday of natural causes. Wood won the Masters and the Open in 1941.

TAOS, N.M. (AP) — John Collier Sr., 84, U.S. commissioner of Indian affairs from 1933 to 1945, died Wednesday. After leaving the government post Collier was professor of sociology and anthropology at City College of New York until 1954.

Army Rejected Low Bid for Costly Rifle

WASHINGTON (AP) — A special House Armed Services subcommittee that investigated the M16 rifle a year ago will reconvene to examine what its chairman calls "unrealistically high" prices in two new procurement contracts.

Rep. Richard H. Ichord, D-Mo., said Wednesday his subcommittee also plans to ask the Army why it rejected the bid of an arms manufacturer whose price was $20 million below that of one successful bidder, General Motors.

"I believe the public is entitled to a full explanation of the matter and we intend to examine the whole matter in detail," Ichord said.

The subcommittee, which charged in its report last October that the M16 program had been "grossly mismanaged," will reopen hearings next Tuesday.

The latest M16 furore erupted after Sen. George S. McGovern, D-S.D., told the Senate that Marmont Co., of Saco, Maine — sole supplier of the Army's M60 machine gun — failed to get one of two contracts awarded despite its offer to supply 240,000 rifles for a ceiling price of $36 million.

Instead two-year contracts for production of 240,000 rifles each were awarded to Harrington & Richardson of Worcester, Mass., at a ceiling price of $42 million and to Hydra-Matic Division of General Motors, Ypsilanti, Mich., for $56 million.

The Army issued Wednesday what it called a fact sheet on the latest M16 contracts in which it emphasized that once manufacturing costs are determined with the quoted prices will be subject to negotiation downward.

It attributed the difference in price between the GM and H&R contracts to higher wage scales at GM and to varying tooling up costs.

Harrington & Richardson was a major producer of the M14 rifle and much of its equipment can be utilized in M16 production, the Army said.

Mixed Drinks in Clubs Are Ruled Illegal

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell ruled today that regulations drawn up by the state Alcohol Beverage Control Board recently to permit sale of mixed drinks in private clubs "contravene statutory prohibition, and are therefore invalid."

Frank Graves, an enforcement officer for the ABC was on hand when Purcell issued the opinion.

He said he had been sent to pick up a copy for the board, which was meeting at the time the opinion was issued.

Purcell's opinion was handed down in response to a request from Mrs. John R. Starr, a Little Rock justice of the peace. Mrs. Starr asked for the opinion after Purcell refused to answer a query from newsmen on whether the regulations were legal.

Mrs. Starr said in her request that since 1935, it has generally been assumed that the Arkansas liquor act provided only package sales of liquor with no consuming on the premises.

Purcell quoted from Arkansas statute 48-309, which, he said, governs the "only remaining field of liquor traffic permitted by law, that is, the selling and dispensing at retail."

The pertinent part of the statute says: "...all such sales shall be in unbroken packages and the same shall not be opened or the contents or any part consumed on the premises where purchased."

Purcell also was asked whether mixed drink permits could be issued to restaurants, hotels or clubs and he said that issuance of any permit to such facilities could only allow retail sales in unbroken packages for off-premises consumption.

But while the crops were still in the ground U.S. exports started slowing as countries in Europe, Africa and South America also harvested record or near-record crops.

And that wasn't all. Much rain and snow in this nation's corn belt delayed the harvest and much high moisture corn and soybeans resulted. These bring lower prices because they have to be commercially dried.

For instance, Illinois farmers figured they would have to get 75 to 85 cents a bushel for corn to break even at the end of the

Let's Set the Record STRAIGHT

The following editorial which appeared in the Crossett News-Observer on May 2, 1968 strikes such a low blow at the outset of this campaign that it cannot be ignored!

NO SURPRISES LEFT

In a way the most surprising thing about the dual announcement Tuesday that Jim Johnson and wife Virginia would jointly seek the offices of U. S. Senator and Governor, was that anyone was surprised. At this late date seasoned political watchers should not be surprised at anything the Johnsons will do in the realm of politics. But the announcement does raise some questions of more than passing moment. One, of course, has to do with party loyalty. Altho it was announced that Jim had surrendered his job as George Wallace's campaign manager, the fact remains that he has been in the forefront of the Wallace third party movement and regardless of what he says about the conflict between the state and national parties, in the minds of many people he is still a party bolter going back to his famous (or infamous) speech in behalf of Barry Goldwater in 1964. Another question being asked by more than a few people is just what are Johnson's ties with the Rockefeller administration. It was widely rumored two years ago that Justice Jim "sold out" to Rockefeller and now the rumor mill is grinding out similar charges. One county official, who is generally in the know, has said that Johnson has been observed "coming down off the mountain" at least three times this spring, which leads some to the conclusion (either true or false) that he and Rockefeller have had their heads together on how best to muddy the political waters and thus assure Win's re-election. But probably the most vexing question the twin campaigns pose is what would happen to the happy Johnson household should both partners win. Would it mean husband would depart for Washington and wife to Little Rock? Surely that would be the case and if so, the domestic life might cause to say nothing of that imposed on the state and nation. In the interests, therefore, of tranquility on all fronts, we would hope the Johnsons would reconsider their announcements and let either one (or both) retire before the strain on the electorate becomes unbearable.

An Open Letter To The Editor, Crossett News-Observer

DEAR BOB:

As the editor of my home town newspaper your editorial relative to the candidacies of Jim and Virginia Johnson titled "No Surprises Left," will do us great harm. Because of your location in what we call our home town (we have never lived in the city limits of Crossett) the people over the state will believe that you possess some special knowledge of our character, background and reputation, and therefore give a greater credence to your words than they possibly deserve. The people will have no way of knowing that I am only casually acquainted with you and your wife. I mean this as no slight, it is just a fact.

Actually about all we know about you personally is that you came to Crossett from Kansas or some other Northern state and proceeded with your newspaper to tell the people of the Crossett area how to run the business. Many of your suggestions have been helpful and to say the least your newspaper has been interesting.

If you have ever agreed with me politically, I'm not aware of it. Certainly, this is your prerogative and I am fighting for your right to disagree. I must say, however, that before this recent editorial, I have never found your writing to be vicious, little or unethical. This one is different, and as busy as we are preparing for a long and intense campaign and as tired as we are after having completed an arduous and successful campaign to obtain for Governor George Wallace of Alabama a ballot position in Arkansas as a candidate for President of the United States, I find it rather imposing to have to take the time to answer a shocking editorial which appeared in my home town newspaper. I will not question your motives in writing this scurrilous editorial which attempts to smear, by innuendo and suggestion, Virginia and me.

Your readers know you are against George Wallace. In a race between Virginia and Rockefeller there could be no doubt as to where your loyalty would lie and certainly in my race with Fulbright, you will be found in the Internationalists' corner. With these major premises established (and I don't believe you will deny their correctness) I will proceed to the "questions" raised in your editorial.

After establishing yourself as a "seasoned political watcher" you question my party loyalty. I am an Arkansas Democrat. As you well know, the Arkansas Democratic party rules do not require its party members to support the nominees of the National Democratic Party. In case you missed the press reports, that is what the recent contest was all about at the last meeting of the State Democratic Committee. A number of people who were loyal to L.B.J. tried to force a change in the Arkansas Party Rules to force Arkansas Democrats to vote for the National Party nominees. The record shows that we were able to defeat the proposal by a vote of more than two to one. Now if I had been a loyal Arkansas Democrat I would have helped to pass that proposal and destroyed the Arkansas Party by driving all of the Arkansas Democrats out of the party who cannot and will not vote for Fabian Socialists like Lyndon Johnson.

If I had not been a loyal Arkansas Democrat I would have two years ago, after becoming the Democratic nominee for Governor, told the leaders of the Arkansas Democrats we had just defeated in the primaries to go to — rather than inviting them to support me as their nominee, as I did. Many people think this invitation for party unity cost me the election. If it did, Jim and Virginia Johnson have suffered more than any two people in the history of the state, for the sake of party loyalty.

If I had not been a loyal Arkansas Democrat, Virginia and I would have filed this year as candidates for public office on the American Party ticket, and encouraged others to do so, thereby splitting the Arkansas Democratic Party vote in the General Election guaranteeing the election of the Republican candidates for state, district and county offices.

Yes, I supported Barry Goldwater four years ago, and I am supporting George Wallace this year with all of the energy and resources at my command. In doing so I am not violating a single rule of the Arkansas Democratic Party. The Arkansas Party Rules require only that Arkansas Democrats support in the General Election the nominees selected in the Arkansas Democratic primaries. Some 200,000 Arkansas Democrats violated this rule, including many Party Leaders, in the last General Election and elected a Republican Governor. If only 25,000 of these people could have remained loyal to the Arkansas

Democratic Party, Arkansas would have been spared the mortification of the most incompetent Governor since Powell Clayton.

After visiting with people in most of the counties during the petition campaign for Wallace, I find that a large majority of the people who bolted the Party under the sincere impression that Rockefeller could and would do more for the State, after almost two years without leadership, are so sick of their choice they are anxious to rectify their mistake by electing native Arkansans to their highest offices.

Now as to those who bolted the party for other than sincere reasons, including a few die-hards who are not big enough to admit they could make a mistake, this group along with a handful of ambitious politicians and their henchmen are the people who are saying "Jim sold us out." I am the first to admit that I made many blunders during the last campaign. I almost ran my guts out defeating the most powerful political machine ever assembled in Arkansas. I had lost over 42 pounds! Tired and weary, I blundered up to Cherokee Village looking for rest, help and relief. I got all three—right between the eyes. The rest of the race is history. One old friend has suggested that with the new influential "friends" I acquired during the General Election last time, I didn't need any enemies to cause me to lose the election.

By implication your editorial questions how I have been able to make a living these past two years. Frankly, it hasn't been easy. But the Lord has blessed me with many friends who have confidence in my judgment (as is attested to by the 258,000 people who voted for me for Governor in the last election). After having gained a favorable reputation as a student of the law due to my almost eight years on the Supreme Court of Arkansas, many of these people have brought their legal problems to me. I have counseled with them and referred them to the lawyers I thought best suited to handle their type of case. Most of these lawyers paid me the standard one-third of the fees they collected. These funds, along with the money I have borrowed from my father, T. W. Johnson, who lives here in Crossett, have financed us these last two years and permitted us to accomplish what we did in the Wallace petition campaign. All of my debts are paid except the mortgage on my home and the $4,500.00 I borrowed from my Dad to pay for the statewide telecast I made for Wallace. (This will be paid, but if it shouldn't be, I don't anticipate a foreclosure soon.)

As to filing fees for Governor and U. S. Senator, eleven patriots across the state paid all of the fees except $400.00 and we had that. Since our announcement, campaign contributions have been coming in rather steadily and based upon our past experience, we anticipate that we will collect enough funds from the people to conduct an adequate and successful campaign. Now I've told you about all my business except to show you a copy of my income tax return, and I guess I could do that if you insist. I don't know of any lawyers who are having to peddle pencils on the street corners. Even the young ones seem to do all right. I think my record indicates that I am better than a green hand in the legal profession. Of course I am sure that many of the "charitable" liberals and some of my political enemies are disappointed that I have not starved to death these last two years. I am happy to have disappointed them.

As to the unnamed county official "who is generally in the know," you so gleefully quote as having reported that I had been observed "coming down off the mountain." I must confess I have been to the mountain once and by the foot of the mountain once, in the past two years. Frances Mallory Jeffress, who is the former dietitian and lunch room supervisor for the Crossett School System, and her husband, Leslie Jeffress, the retired assistant postmaster at Crossett, are now curators of the Episcopal Diocese of Arkansas' Camp Mitchell, which is located on Petit Jean Mountain. Soon after they moved into their lovely home, which is on this side of the mountain from the "Squire," they invited us up to their place for supper. We accepted and had a wonderful visit.

The time I went by the foot of the mountain was when I returned to Conway from Perryville one night too late to catch the Tadousack Ferry in operation and had to take the long route through Morrilton. I had been to Perryville to visit a dear friend, Mrs. Carolyn Anderson, whose husband, Harry, had just passed away. That is my confession. My! How observant your unnamed county official must be. It sounds more like "facts" Marlin Hawkins, the Conway County Sheriff, might "produce."

Your intended innuendo is quite plain. What you are trying to say is that Rockefeller paid us to get into our races. You infer that our candidacy for public office on the Democratic ticket is going to help Rockefeller win re-election. The only help we are going to give him is to help him right out of office! And if you climb on his wagon again this year, expect to find it a lot less crowded. Two years of going nowhere is more than enough for Arkansas.

You end your "little" epistle by pretending concern for the welfare of the Johnson household. I could answer you by saying that it would be nice to have a Junior Senator in Washington who would want to come back to Arkansas more than once every six years. Or, I could remind you that almost one-fourth of the men in this state, because of their employment, are able to spend little time with their families except on weekends. I will tell you and the rest of the Liberals that better men than you and I are spending ALL of their time away from their families fighting a no-win war in Vietnam, while a bunch of "Peace At Any Price" politicians try to appease the Communists.

For your information, I wouldn't have taken my wife and family to Washington with me for the first two years even if Virginia were not going to be the next Governor of Arkansas. Under the stewardship of the Liberal Establishment, Washington, D. C., is not a safe place for women, nor a decent place to raise children, and probably won't be for at least two years after George Wallace becomes President of the United States. With the mess our Nation's Capital is in now, it will probably take us that long to straighten it out. In the meantime, can you think of a better or safer place for my family to be during the week while I am in Washington than the Governor's Mansion in Little Rock?

Now, Bob, you have too fine a little party to have to stoop to rumor mongering again in the future. Leave that to the desperate little politicians who have no other recourse but to resort to character assassination, when they feel the tidal wave of public sentiment inundating them. In time, maybe even they, too, will be washed clean enough by the waves to want to "Stand Up For America!"

YOUTH ASKED FOR IT, care of Helen Help Us! this newspaper.

DOES MOTHER KNOW BEST? Dear Helen: There is a sailor whom I have known for three months. My problem is that I'm afraid what my mother says about him is true. Every weekend he has leave he spends at our house. We go out in one of the family cars, and sometimes he eats dinner with us. He never offers to help around the house, though he is well-mannered and always compliments us on our cooking.

He has never said he liked me, or even told me I look pretty, which of course I don't. My mother claims he just comes for free meals and cheap dates. She says anyone as good looking and outgoing as he is wouldn't be interested in somebody as quiet and mousey as me. I don't want to believe her.

Should I ask him why he keeps coming, quit seeing him, or...? — PLAIN OLD MOUSEY ME
Dear POMM: I wouldn't trust the judgment of a mother so unthinking, imperceptive — and perhaps jealous — that she brings her daughter up to feel "plain and mousey!"

Your sailor may not be serious, but you're enjoying his company... he makes you proud and happy to have guy others want. You NEED that... it's more than enough for now, so don't push him. Above all, don't take any more belittling from Mamal! It's time you stopped seeing yourself as she sees you. — H

Dear Helen: I am of today, now. I have tried to explain a little of that "now" in the following: To my Father, who is ashamed of me, because I seem not his kind of man:

Alas, I am but a child,
My smile
My laugh
My unconcern
All not hollow
No innocent
One-third of my life past yet less than half yours.

You frown at my smile, my laugh
And call my unconcern irrepossibility —
And not of stone or mortar.
I have no future for you to see.
I need not lay it down — I see it.
Forget not I have no family yet
Only paths to walk to make myself full —
To see where I will build my castle
And what shape it will take.
And I ask, be patient...
Do not condemn what you see
Not realizing what you do not see.
Smile with me or, if you cannot,
Let me smile, because I see my security —
And it will be seen when the times comes. — DAVID
Dear David: I seldom print poetry, but I feel compelled to print yours. Many parents won't understand it, and that's a pity, for if they'd only remember back, they might recall their youth through your words. — H.

Jim Hunter Hurls a Perfect Game

By HAL BUCK

Associated Press Sports Writer
It has been an adventuresome 22 years for Jim "Catfish" Hunter who pitched his way out of Hartford, N.C., and into the record book with the ninth perfect game in modern baseball history Wednesday night.

Hunter drove in three runs with a pair of singles and mowed down 27 straight Minnesota hitters for the second no-hitter of the young baseball season, beating the Twins 4-0.

It was the first regular season perfect game in 46 years in the American League and it's a cinch it was the first masterpiece hurled by a pitcher with only nine toes.

Hunter, who pocketed $75,000 of Charlie Finley bonus money in 1964, lost the big toe on his right foot in a hunting accident in November, 1963. Shortly after signing with the A's, who still were in Kansas City then, Hunter was hospitalized to have shotgun pellets removed from his foot.

The operation slowed his progress and at one point the A's considered dropping the young right-hander but the big bonus investment convinced them to stick with him and he came through handsomely.

Wednesday's masterpiece against the Twins might have shaken most young pitchers. But not Catfish. He'd been this route before.

In 1963, Hunter threw another perfect game—for Perquimans County High School back in Hertford, N.C. Wednesday's gem came in the Oakland Coliseum, 2,580 miles from Perquimans County. It's understandable why Catfish had to spell the name of the school five times to newsmen. After all, they must have been nervous. Few had seen any perfect games before.

In other American League games Wednesday, Detroit dropped Baltimore 3-1, Boston took Washington 3-1, California whipped Chicago 3-2 and New York edged Cleveland 2-1.

In the National League, Chicago topped Los Angeles 7-6, Pittsburgh edged Atlanta 4-3 in 14 innings, Philadelphia rapped Cincinnati 6-2, and San Francisco got by Houston 3-1 and St. Louis blanked New York 2-0.

Hunter, who got his nickname from his parents after he ran away from home when he was a youngster and returned with two catfish, earned an immediate $5,000 raise from Finley for his perfect game.

The last American League pitcher to hurl a perfect game was Don Larsen, who did it for the New York Yankees against Brooklyn in the 1956 World Series. Before that in the American League, you have to go back to Charlie Robertson, who did it for the Chicago White Sox against Detroit April 30, 1922.

More recently there have been Jim Bunning for Philadelphia in 1964 and Sandy Koufax for the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1955.

Catfish was also the batting star for the A's, driving in three of their four runs. He struck out 11 and finished with a flourish, fanning Rich Reese after the pinch hitter had fouled off five straight pitches.

Jim Northrup hammered his fifth home run of the year and made a clutch catch shutting off Baltimore rally in the eighth inning as the Tigers beat the Orioles.

Northrup's diving catch of Brooks Robinson's liner ended a bases-loaded threat in the Orioles' eighth. Jon Warden pitched out of a tight ninth inning jam to nail down the victory for Earl Wilson.

Washington dropped its sixth straight when Boston pushed over a pair of eighth-inning runs in a pinch single by Jerry Adair and Carl Yastrzemski's sacrifice fly.

Don Mincher's sixth inning homer carried California past Chicago as Clyde Wright won his second game. Luis Aparicio had a two-run homer for the White Sox.

Andy Kosko doubled and Jake Ribbs singled him home with New York's winning run against Cleveland. The game was marked by a near free-for-all fight when Indians' first baseman Tony Horton and Yankee shortstop Gene Michael exchanged punches in the fifth inning.

Champions to Meet in Little Rock

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

Probably the greatest tract meet in Arkansas history will be held Saturday night, with the cream of the crop together for the high school 1968 Meet of Champions at Quigley Stadium in Little Rock.

A foretaste came at the state meets last week, where records were swept away in piles and new standards set. But things should really pop in the running events. Hope has no representatives in the senior division, but Lynn Norton and Gary Wheelington will compete in junior high. Norton's event is the shot put, where his best is an 8th grader this year is 54-4. Wheelington will run the 220 dash, where he placed second in the state AA meet last week. Broyles said the quarterbacks have done a good job of passing and "we have several excellent receivers." However, Broyles said, "We've got to be able to move the ball on the ground to be effective."

The lineups for the game indicated that Broyles has attempted to make the contest "as competitive as possible."

The Red team, which included the No. 1 offense and No. 1 defense, had to come from behind last week to defeat the Whites 23-16.

John Eichler, who quarterbacked the Whites last week, has been moved to the Red team. Split end Max Peacock and running backs David Dickey, Russell Cody and Bruce Maxwell are also on the Red unit.

All but Maxwell started at some time during the 1967 season. Maxwell was a regular in 1966 but did not play last year. Senior Gordon Norwood and highly touted sophomore Bill Montgomery will share the quarterbacking duties for the Whites.

Their primary targets will be tight end Mike Sigman and split ends Chuck Dicus and David Cox. Glen Hockersmith, the No. 1 fullback in 1967, is on the White squad along with Richard Coleman and sophomore back Bill Burnett, one of the sensations of spring practice.

St. Louis Is Planning to Check foe

MONTREAL (AP) — If the Montreal Canadiens think they've seen tight checking so far in their Stanley Cup final series, Scotty Bowman is planning to make things even tougher for them tonight.

The St. Louis Blues' coach, who learned most of his hockey in the Montreal organization, is convinced that the only way to handle the high-flying East Division champions of the National Hockey League is to check them to death.

One way he hopes to accomplish this in tonight's third game of the best-of-7 series is to get veteran defenseman Doug Harvey back into the line-up, bench winger Gary Veneruzzo and move Jim Roberts from defense to forward. The Canadiens won the first two games in St. Louis.

Harvey was injured in the semifinals against Minnesota and played only briefly in one of the last four St. Louis games.

But both Bowman and Coach Toe Blake of Montreal agree that breaks have been the deciding factor in both of Montreal's victories in the series—3-2 in overtime Sunday and 1-0 Tuesday.

Porkers' Red-White Game Sat.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) —

The Arkansas Razorbacks will climax their spring practice sessions Saturday in Little Rock with the Red-White game, offering fans a glimpse of the revamped Razorback offense.

The Razorbacks have been working this spring on changing from their run-first, pass-second offense to the pro-style passing formation.

The game is set for 2 p.m. in War Memorial Stadium.

"We've covered a lot of ground this spring with changes in our offense and some defensive adjustments," head Coach Frank Broyles said. "This game ought to give our staff some idea of how far we've come."

"We've worked hard on our total offense this spring," Broyles said. "We've had to with the changes that have been made."

Broyles said the quarterbacks have done a good job of passing and "we have several excellent receivers." However, Broyles said, "We've got to be able to move the ball on the ground to be effective."

The lineups for the game indicated that Broyles has attempted to make the contest "as competitive as possible."

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Three El Paso pitchers scattered 12 hits Wednesday night as the Texans whipped the Arkansas Travelers 3-2 for a split of their Texas League doubleheader.

Arkansas won the first of the two seven-inning games 2-1 behind the two-hit pitching of Santiago Guzman and the no-hit relief of Tom Hilgendorf.

A pinch-hit, two-run double of Jerry Davanon of Arkansas in the fifth inning of the first game was the key blow for the Travelers.

A similar run-scoring hit by El Paso's Bobby Trevino in the same inning of the nightcap enabled El Paso to gain the split.

In other league games Wednesday, Dallas-Fort Worth whipped Amarillo 8-5, San Antonio clipped Shreveport 5-4 and the Albuquerque-Memphis game was postponed due to rain.

Braves Lose to Pirates in the 14th

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer
Luman Harris watched four right arms overpower the Atlanta Braves... and couldn't believe his eyes.

"Everybody looks like Lefty Grove against us," the Braves' skipper said Wednesday night after his club dropped a 4-3, 14-inning decision to the Pittsburgh Pirates. "We get three runs in the first inning and I don't see us get anybody else on base for the next three hours."

Right-handers Steve Blass, Dave Wickersham, Ron Kline and Elroy Face threw blanks at Atlanta after the Braves pushed over three unearned first inning runs. Roberto Clemente's sacrifice fly in the 14th finally won it for the Pirates, who have played six one-run ball games in their last seven starts.

Elsewhere, San Francisco trimmed Houston 3-1, St. Louis topped the New York Mets 2-0, Philadelphia downed Cincinnati 6-2 and the Chicago Cubs edged Los Angeles 7-6.

Oakland's Jim "Catfish" Hunter pitched a perfect game as the Athletics snapped Minnesota's 4-0, Detroit nipped Baltimore 2-1, the New York Yankees shaded Cleveland 2-1, California got by the Chicago White Sox 3-2 and Boston beat Washington 3-1 in American League play.

Pinch hitter Gary Kolb opened the Pirates' 14th by drawing a walk from Atlanta reliever Cecil Upshaw. Maury Wills forced Kolb, Matty Alou beat out an infield hit and the pair pulled off a double steal before Wills scored the tie-breaking run on Clemente's fly to right.

The Pirates had tied it with two runs in the eighth, capitalizing on two wild pitches by Atlanta starter Phil Niekro and a throwing error by catcher Marty Martinez.

Kline limited the Braves to one hit from the ninth through the 13th and earned the victory, with Face pitching the final inning. Blass allowed three hits before going out for a pinch hitter in the sixth and Wickersham followed up with two scoreless innings.

San Francisco's Ray Sadecki held the Astros hitless until Jim Wynn homered with two out in the seventh, then doubled to start a two-run ninth inning burst that broke a 1-1 deadlock. Willie Mays' single delivered the go-ahead run and another scored on Willie McCovey's sacrifice fly.

The Cardinals blanked the Mets behind the four-hit pitching of Steve Carlton, who drove in the only run he needed with a third inning single.

Greg Gossen's single and Jerry Grote's double got Carlton in trouble in the seventh, but third baseman Mike Shannon speared Jerry Buchek's liner and stepped on the bag, completing an unassisted, lining-ending double play.

Timber Wolf Is Killed

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — A wild timber wolf, the first to be seen in New York State since horse and buggy days, has been identified by the State Conservation Department. The wolf, which weighed 84 pounds and measured 71 inches, was struck and killed by a car along a highway in the lower Adirondack Mountains. The agency said it might have escaped from a zoo or game farm.

Owner Peter Fuller says he has decided to go ahead with preparations after being told trainer Lou Cavalaris could handle pre-race conditioning for Dancer's Image pending the outcome of the hearing.

Fuller still insists, however, that he'll pull the colt out of the $150,000 race, second jewel in racing's Triple Crown, unless Cavalaris is permitted to saddle him.

"He'll either go into the paddock with me and my wife on May 18 or the horse won't run," Fuller said Wednesday night. "They're an indivisible team. They're both champions."

The hearing, scheduled for Monday, concerns the discovery of traces of the pain-killing drug phenylbutazone in a post-race urinalysis.

Cavalaris has steadfastly denied that he or any member of his crew administered the drug to the sore-legged colt any time after the previous Sunday — six days before the Derby and ample time, according to the trainer, so that it should have cleared his system and couldn't have affected his performance.

Dancer's Image won the Derby last Saturday by 1 1/2 lengths over Calumet Farm's Forward Pass, but the disqualification was announced Tuesday when the results of the urinalysis were learned.

Fuller took heart Wednesday, however, when Kentucky racing officials said no purse money could be distributed until after next week's hearing.

Garnie Hatch, Gainesville, Florida, High School basketball coach the past three seasons, just announced that he has accepted a position as assistant cage coach at Pepperdine College in Los Angeles, California. He will coach the freshman team in addition to being assistant varsity coach.

"It was a hard decision to make," Hatch said, "but I've always wanted to become a college basketball coach. I figured that I'd better start in that direction now that the opportunity has presented itself."

Garnie is a graduate of Hope High School, and a former Bobcat. He is also a graduate of Ole Miss where he captained the Rebel cagers in 1958-59. His first high school post was at Santa Fe, near Alachua, Florida. He was chosen Sun Coach of the Year in the Gainesville area in 1961, 1964 and shared the honor in 1966.

Garnie, his wife, Lucy, and their sons, Ray, 8, and Lee, 4, will go to California in July. He will start work officially at Pepperdine in September.

Mrs. Hatch was voted "Teacher of the year" in Gainesville for the 1967-68 term. She is the former Lucy Flowers Medder, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Tom Medder of Jackson, Mississippi. Garnie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hatch of Patmos.

Differences in S. Africa Are Growing

By KENNETH L. WHITING
Associated Press Writer
JOHANNESBURG (AP) — Entrances to some buildings in South Africa are labeled "In." Directly beneath that sign is an identical one which also says "In."

One is in English and the other Afrikaans and, despite such similarities, the differences between them are growing in bilingual South Africa.

Some Afrikaners want English dropped entirely as the second official language.

Ardent Afrikaners want Prime Minister Balthazar J. Vorster to bar citizenship to immigrants who are not fluent in both official languages.

What is Afrikaans and why are its speakers so protective of their tongue?

Afrikaans is the only language of European origin that is not spoken in Europe. In fact it is spoken nowhere but on the southern tip of Africa.

Its origin is mainly Dutch although linguists say it is now closer to Flemish. Afrikaans started evolving some time before the so-called Great Trek of pioneer Dutch settlers from the coast into the interior of what is now South Africa in the 19th century. It adopted tribal and other words as needed and became the simple and direct tongue of the frontiersman.

Afrikaners had little left but their land and their language after defeat by the British in the 1899-1902 Boer War. Resentment that English was the only socially acceptable tongue in South Africa led Afrikaners to fight for their language.

The struggle for equality with English has its linguistic landmarks. Afrikaans was approved as the second language in schools in 1914. It replaced Dutch as the language of the Dutch Reformed Church in 1916. It was designated the second official language in 1925. The first Afrikaans dictionary was started in 1928. An Afrikaans Bible — "Die Bybel" — was first published in 1934.

Sensitivity is widespread among South Africans, however, with Afrikaners claiming their tongue is neglected and English speakers complaining that theirs is being swallowed up.

Prof. P. J. Nienaber, head of the Department of Afrikaans at Johannesburg's Witwatersrand University, says

250,000 more people speak Afrikaans than English in South Africa and yet there is widespread unrest regarding the future of Afrikaans. Part of this is based on the knowledge that Afrikaans is all but useless overseas. All top ranking Afrikaner businessmen are completely fluent in English.

There is little Afrikaans slang and, in keeping with the fundamental Calvinist background of its originators, Afrikaners speakers seeking the proper swear word for an occasion usually have to adopt an English one.

Raceway Is Shaping as the Fastest

DARLINGTON, S. C. (AP) — The 64,950 Rebel 400-mile stock car race at Darlington International Raceway Saturday is shaping up as the fastest in its history.

All eight drivers who qualified in Wednesday's first day of trials eclipsed the four-lap mark of 145.931 set by David Pearson last year.

The fastest, Lee Roy Yarborough in a factory-sponsored Ford Torino, was almost three miles an hour better at 148.850.

Pearson was clocked at 148.751 this time, also in a factory Ford, and was second to Yarborough. Four Fords, a Mercury, a Dodge and two Plymouths made the first eight places.

Eight more will qualify today for the 36-car field. Those trying will include Mercury's Cale Yarborough and Plymouth's Richard Petty, who didn't run Wednesday because of engine troubles.

Chisox Get Permission to Move

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Owners of the Chicago White Sox have been given permission to move their American League baseball franchise to Milwaukee next year, the Los Angeles Times said Wednesday.

Quoting a "reliable source," the Times said the decision was made at an April 25 meeting of American League owners and executives but that a White Sox official denied it.

The White Sox are playing nine regular-season games this year in Milwaukee, former home of the National League Braves. First game for the White Sox in the Wisconsin city is next Wednesday against the California Angels.

The White Sox for some time have been planning to build a stadium in Chicago. Arthur Allyn, club owner, reportedly is on the verge of getting approval for a $43-million sports complex near downtown Chicago.

WEST MEMPHIS, Ark. (AP) — George L. May and his wife, Anna, both 30, of West Memphis were killed Wednesday when their car crashed into a trailer-truck about four miles west of here on U.S. 70.

State Police said driver of the truck was Leslie Huskey, 44, of Forrest City. He was not believed injured.

STAMP SAVERS SPENDING BUDAPEST (AP) — Hungarian stamp collectors last year spent more than 75 million forints ($6.380 million) for their hobby compared to 62 million forints ($5.280 million) in 1966, the news agency MTI reported.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Free Speech for Congressmen

Do congressmen talk too much? If they do, one reason may be that they have—by law—more freedom of speech than you and I.

Suppose that a senator, in the course of debate, accuses a prominent businessman of cheating on his income tax return. Even if the senator has no proof at all, he cannot be held liable for defamation of character. As a member of Congress, he is protected by what the law calls an "absolute privilege" against liability for slanderous statements.

In fact, a congressman is protected not only against slander suits

but even against criminal charges—

Such an occurrence is the rare exception rather than the rule. And while it has been argued that there are grave dangers in entrusting to any individual so much leeway, there is a powerful purpose behind this principle of law: to encourage the utmost freedom in congressional debate.

The fear of unpleasant legal consequences, either justified or unjustified, could well put a real damper on a congressman's performance of his job. For the same reason, similar protection is given to lawmakers in almost all democratic countries.

Still, a congressman's freedom of speech is not totally without limits. One restraint (seldom used) is Congress' own power to discipline a member who abuses his privilege.

Another, more important restraint is that the congressman loses his immunity if he repeats his statements outside of Congress, apart from his official functions.

But probably the most effective restraint on an unscrupulous congressman lies in what the voters can do to him: come next Election Day.

Throw the rascal out!

A Lighthearted Demonstration

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—The Rev. Angelo Noble, chaplain at Christian Brothers College, joined students Thursday in a lighthearted demonstration aimed at getting the college's swimming pool opened.

Father Noble carried a placard saying, "The Church Must Get Involved," as students bearing signs reading "No Pool, No School" and "Keep It Cool, Fill the Pool" converged on the administration building.

The demonstration ended when the Rev. Luke M. Grady, college president, offered the demonstrators a sprinkling can filled with water.

Why didn't South use Blackwood on today's hand to check for aces? For the same reason that you never see the hero of a Western movie jump into his modern car and ride off into the sunset. Today's hand was played before Easley Blackwood had invented his convention.

Hands like this one made some quantitative method of asking for aces an essential of successful bidding.

This hand is not shown for that reason but because South had no trouble making his slam in spite of missing two aces.

East played his deuce of hearts and West studied what to lead at trick two. He shifted to a club, whereupon South proceeded to draw trumps and eventually discard his jack of diamonds on dummy's king of hearts.

We don't think much of West's club lead. South had jumped to the slam without any top spade honor but the ace. He had shown up with a heart loser. It would be most unlikely that he would bid a slam with a possible trump loser and without the ace of either unbid suit.

Today we would not find South in that slam contract, but, if he did get there, another modern invention called the suit preference signal would enable East to tell West what to lead.

East would play his queen of hearts on West's ace. West would see that East could not possibly want a heart continuation. Therefore, that high card, the queen of diamonds, would be calling for the lead of the higher off-suit. Diamonds are higher than clubs. West would lead a diamond.

A word of warning is necessary here. The suit preference signal is fine but don't carry it to absurd extremes. Most of the time, you play a high card to ask partner to continue his suit or a low card to ask him to shift to another one and that other one is not necessar-

Dog Track Ownership Questioned

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Charles J. Upton, president and general manager of the Southland Racing Corp., which operates a dog racing track at West Memphis, said Wednesday he would welcome an investigation of the track's ownership.

The corporation came under attack Wednesday in the Arkansas Legislative Council, which adopted a resolution calling for an investigation.

"We have endeavored to operate Southland efficiently and believe we have done so with the best interest of our local stockholders and the state of Arkansas in mind," Upton said.

Following the council's action, state Revenue Commissioner B. Bryan Larey disclosed that his department and the state Racing Commission were investigating the ownership of the greyhound track, which tentatively scheduled opening its 102-day season June 7.

The resolution seeks to have investigated a report that a New York syndicate is to take over the track within 10 days.

"The rumor is that this New York syndicate will take over in about 10 days," said state Sen. Clarence Bell of Parkin, one of the three sponsors of the resolution.

Arguments Over New Penal Code

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Legislative Council Wednesday heard some spirited arguments about certain provisions in the state's new penal code.

Circuit Judge Henry W. Smith of Pine Bluff attacked a provision that allows prisoners sentenced to life in prison to become eligible to be considered for parole after 10 years.

He said the provision eliminated life imprisonment "and that's wrong."

Smith said he was "burned up" because the courts were "pampering the criminals" more and more.

John Haley of Little Rock, chairman of the Board of Correction, defended the provision, saying the hope of parole on good behavior makes life prisoners easier to handle and to rehabilitate.

With a bit of sarcasm in his voice, Smith said, "They're real nice boys over there (at the prisons). Mr. Haley can tell you. They don't work if they don't want to."

The judges who appeared before the council, seemed to be united in their view to have the penal code changed to allow judges instead of juries set penalties for convictions in non-capital cases.

Circuit Judge Charles W. Light of Paragould said under the rules of admitting evidence, juries cannot be told about prior convictions and other facts about accused men in deciding their guilt.

He said the judge, who can have access to this information, should have the authority to set sentence. Prosecutor Lloyd Henry of Searcy agreed with Light.

The judges were divided on a proposed new bill offered by Haley that would establish a state probation system under the Board of Pardons and Poles.

The state would furnish probation officers to assist circuit judges if the judges wanted them.

Circuit Judge Henry M. Britt of Hot Springs objected to a state system, contending that probation officers should be hired and fired by the circuit judge.

The council also heard a group of businessmen criticize Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's proposed unclaimed property bill, which the governor has indicated would be part of his package of bills to raise money for the state penitentiary.

The group, representing banks, utilities, insurance companies and savings and loan associations, told the council they were not opposed to the bill on principle, but because it lacks many safeguards.

The proposed bill would allow the state to take over property such as bank deposits, utility deposits and stock dividends than have been unclaimed for seven years or longer. The state would use the unclaimed money until the owner claimed it.

Officials have indicated that the bill could produce the first year anywhere from $250,000 to $3 million, which a similar bill did in Oklahoma.

Edward M. Penick Jr. of the Worthen Bank & Trust Co. of Little Rock, who is president of the Arkansas Bankers Association, said the bill went to the

Nixon Lashes Increase of U.S. Crime

NEW YORK (AP) — Richard M. Nixon, saying the United States has become a "lawless society," has endorsed legislative proposals that would authorize some forms of wiretapping in major crime and national security cases.

The former vice president charged Wednesday that the Johnson administration had been "lame and ineffectual" in dealing with "a staggering 88 per cent" rise in crime over the past seven years.

Nixon, a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, also charged that the Supreme Court is "seriously hamstringing the peace forces in our society and strengthening the criminal forces."

He said in a 6,000-word statement issued by his New York office that "if the present rate of new crime continues, the number of rapes and robberies and assaults and thefts in the United States today will double by the end of 1972."

heart of the traditional confidential relationship between a bank and its customers.

The council also heard two industrial financing proposals that have been approved by the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission.

The AIDC wants a bill to allow the state Board of Finance to purchase obligations of industrial development finance corporations.

AIDC Director Robert M. Milwee Jr. said the provision would make available hard-to-get capital for new and expanding industries.

Milwee also asked for passage of a bill to eliminate a provision in a 1955 law prohibiting financial arrangements by local industrial development corporations involving first-mortgage loans for the purchase of equipment and machinery for manufacturing and processing.

This would allow businesses to obtain loans from the Small Business Administration through local developing corporations.

Nixon Crime Position Hit by Rocky

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard M. Nixon has issued his formal position on combatting crime—and drawn a rebuke from Republican presidential rival Nelson A. Rockefeller on the issue of civil disorders.

On the Democratic side, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy was assessing the scope of his Indiana presidential primary victory and Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy campaigned in Nebraska with a verbal blast at Kennedy's agricultural record.

Nixon said leniency and growing rewards of crime—not poverty—are responsible for widespread crime in the cities which threatens to spread to rich suburbs.

"The success of criminals in this country," the former vice president said in New York Wednesday, "plays a far greater role in the rising crime rate than any consideration of poverty."

New York Gov. Rockefeller took issue in a Minneapolis, Minn., speech with Nixon's view, expressed earlier, that order must be maintained while an answer to the civil disorders problem is sought.

"I cannot agree with those who say that we must have order or we shall have no progress," Rockefeller said. "I say that without progress, and without justice, there will be no order."

Rockefeller called today in Manhattan, Kan., for a comprehensive "post-Vietnam plan" to provide employment and education for veterans returning from the war.

In other political developments:

—Kennedy's camp said he won in every city except Evansville and Bloomington in Indiana's Tuesday primary, captured 85 per cent of the vote in Negro precincts, and won 10 of the 11 congressional districts to gain the vast majority of Indiana's 63 Democratic National Convention delegates.

Kennedy and McCarthy meet next in Nebraska on Tuesday.

—McCarthy, pointing to Kennedy's Senate vote against meat-import quotas, said in Hastings, Neb.:

"We shall be hearing much this week, I suspect, from Sen. Kennedy about his concern for the farmers of Nebraska. That concern might have been more appropriately expressed when meat-import quota legislation of such concern to Nebraskans was before the Senate."

—Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, also bidding for the Democratic nomination, told the United Auto Workers convention at Atlantic City President Johnson needs the kind of backing in Vietnam peace negotiations that union leaders get on contract negotiations.

Says Here The Women Are Safest

BOSTON (AP) — The executive director of the governor's Highway Safety Committee says it's men, not women, who have the most accidents. James J. Stratford Jr. told the legislative Committee on Public Safety that in 1963 women who completed driver education programs in Massachusetts had no injury claims. Men, on the other hand, submitted between 7.7 and 20 claims for every 100 cars insured. In 1966, he said, accidents caused by women drivers were one-third to one-half the number caused by men.

Pressure by U.S. to Hire More Negroes

By GAYLORD SHAW
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal officials are threatening to unleash a never-before-used economic weapon contract cancellation—to combat job discrimination in companies that do $75 billion worth of business a year with the government.

President Johnson empowered federal agencies nearly three years ago to terminate contracts if recipient firms failed to hire, promote and pay employees without regard to race.

Officials admit that some companies have disregarded nondiscrimination pledges, but concede no contracts have been canceled.

In the future, however, "some contracts are going to be lost unless an awful lot of people suddenly reverse their field," claimed Ward McCready, assistant director of the Labor Department's contract compliance office.

McCready said executives of a half-dozen of the nation's largest corporations will be called to informal hearings in New York this month as part of the government effort to increase Negro and Puerto Rican representation in Manhattan's 2.4 million white-collar labor force.

However, he refused to name the firms or provide any details on the hearings.

In Philadelphia, the government's insistence that more minority workers be hired for federal construction projects has stalled nearly $20 million in work. And the contractor on the $30 million U.S. Mint in Philadelphia was told his contract "could be suspended or terminated" unless he acted to integrate his work force. Neither contract has been terminated, however.

Johnson's September 1965 executive order applies to all government contracts over $10,000—or all but $5 billion of $80 billion the government pays each year in contracts for goods and services. The order not only bans discrimination in hiring, but requires "affirmative action" programs to ensure upgrading of minority workers.

Companies covered by it employ 25 million persons—one-third of the nation's work force. McCready calculates that these firms have 3 million job openings a year that could be filled from minority groups.

The fact that businesses that disregard nondiscrimination pledges have escaped contract cancellation was assailed by Rep. William F. Ryan, D-N.Y., as "an inexcusable story of bureaucratic betrayal."

"We the people . . ." was the theme of the County Extension Homemakers meeting at the Experiment Station Hut.

Mrs. McCain discussed some of the services of county clerks office as selling marriage licenses, probate clerk, figuring delinquent taxes, preparing tax books, juvenile and County Court, payroll of county employees writing warrants for county bills, Social Security tax reports, and voter registration. She stated records date back to 1820 and that most of this information was available for public examination.

The Tax Assessor stated that millage is based on 20 per cent of land value and discussed office procedure in assessing property.

The County Treasurer described his job as keeper and spender of county money stating that some three million dollars came through the county office in 1967. He also serves as the "bank" for schools and certain county projects. The county financial condition was stated as being good. Mr. Hawthorne also serves the public as veteran service officer.

Sheriff Jimmie Griffin discussed services of the sheriff's office to protect law and order, giving examples of local enforcement measures. He quoted tax millage for schools, etc.

Jim Cole, County Circuit Clerk, was absent, but Mr. Hawthorne mentioned that the Circuit Clerk has responsibilities of Chancery Court Clerk, divorce records, land transactions, deeds, mortgages, child support payments.

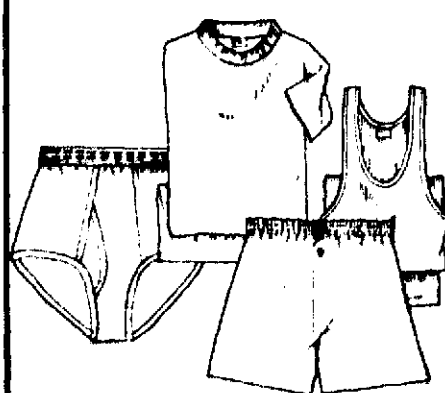

Royce Weisenberger, Chancellor Judge, gave devotion on understanding the Bible, and contributed to a better understanding of county government.

TWO BEDROOM CONCRETE BLOCK HOUSE

This small two bedroom house designed by the Arkansas Agricultural Extension Service provides adequate space for comfortable living yet it uses building materials that will keep construction cost to a minimum. The living area of this house is 961 square foot plus 264 square foot of storage and carport.

The two bedrooms allow sufficient space for the usual bedroom furniture with generous closet space in each bedroom.

The living room is a moderate size and provides a generous amount of glass to provide excellent lighting for this area of the house.

The dining area is at one end of the parallel kitchen and opens into the living room. The traffic from the back part of the house can be routed to the private areas of the residence without disturbing guests in the living area.

The gentle room slope provides a low silhouette with gable ends that provide a long pleasing appearance. The floor is concrete and includes perimeter insulation which is helpful in providing a warm comfortable floor.

Construction details of this plan are complete and detailed working drawings can be obtained from the Hempstead County Agricultural Extension office by requesting Plan No. 647509.

It's Not the Tax But the Debt That Disturbs America

Arkansas Congressman Willbur D. Mills made a gallant stand against ruinous fiscal policy for more than a year but finally voted Wednesday to go along with this compromise:

Add a 10-per-cent surtax to present federal income taxes, and require a cutback of 6 billions in President Johnson's spending plans.

It's a disheartening turn and bodes ill for the national Democratic ticket in the 1968 elections. "Expense cut" promises from politicians don't mean much any more and a disillusioned people are likely to take vengeance against the majority party on Election Day.

Many people like your editor, don't mind a tax increase as much as they fear the never-ending rise in the federal debt. You can always repeal a tax hike at some later day — but paying down a reckless debt takes something more than votes and laws.

Your editor drew the line a few years ago when he opposed using debt money to construct a $400,000 post office building for Hope. It stirred up a hornet's nest in our town, but I had a majority in a divided town with me and now the fear of an ever-climbing debt is rampant throughout America.

We wouldn't mind the tax increase except for the demonstrated fact that the politicians won't use it to reduce the debt but, instead, will put it as collateral to push the debt still higher.

And as the federal debt climbs the value of your money decreases, and prices go higher. Wednesday's compromise — a 10 per cent increase in income tax and a 6-billion expenditure cut — sounds O.K., but will the promise be carried out? I don't think so. You can find out for yourself — watch Congress raise the debt limit again, as it has repeatedly done ever since the end of World War II. When that happens you'll know that Wednesday's promises didn't mean a thing.

There is a solution, if Washington only had the courage to enact it. It is simply this: Stipulate that in any fiscal year when expenditures run higher than tax income the salaries of all policy-making federal officials, from the President down through Congress, be reduced by the same percentage that the deficit bears to the Government's income. The sole exception would be in the event of a formal declaration of war.

It's the "Industrial Incentive" idea applied in reverse — instead of rewarding men who produce a profit you penalize politicians who permit a deficit.

Cold Front Pushed Back Into Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The cold front that drifted out of Arkansas Wednesday is being pushed back into the state by a new surge of cooler air.

The front caused considerable shower activity in the state Wednesday and the showers and thundershowers are expected to continue through Friday. Marble sized hail and winds up to about 50 miles an hour were reported early today at Horatio (Sevier County).

The forecast calls for mostly cloudy skies and little temperature change through Friday. High temperatures Wednesday ranged from 82 at Texarkana to 75 at Fayetteville. Overnight lows ranged from 56 at Harrison to 68 at Walnut Ridge. Rainfall reports for the 24-hour period ended at 6 a.m. include a trace at Pine Bluff, Walnut Ridge and Little Rock and .74 at Fayetteville.

Maine Imports Some Sardines

PORTLAND, Maine (AP) — Some 250 tons of Norwegian sardines were imported here recently although Maine is the nation's largest exporter of sardines. "We haven't been able to depend on the sardine supply in Maine," a spokesman for the importer said, "our demand for sardines has been increasing each year, but the supply from Maine has been erratic."

Rescue of Miners May Come Today

By HOLGER JENSEN
Associated Press Writer
HOMINY FALLS, W. Va. (AP) — The families of 25 coal miners — their men entombed for the fourth day in a flooded mine — huddled around its entrance today believing rescue near.

The crowd swelled to more than 500 about midnight as rumor after rumor swept the nearby mining hamlets that rescuers were closer to reaching the men than they would admit.

But officials stuck to their estimate that the earliest that enough water can be pumped out to reach the men is 6 p.m. The mine was flooded Monday when the walls to an adjoining abandoned mine burst.

Even then, rescue officials warned, it might not be possible to bring the 13 men nearest the mouth of the mine out immediately. They have been cramped since Monday noon in a cold, damp area where only a few could stand. And it was questionable whether they can come out without aid.

The mine passageway is only 36 inches high for most of its two-mile reach into the mountain. Two men are a half-mile farther in than the 13. Another half mile deeper are 10 others, presumed dead.

Ambulances arriving late Wednesday night set off the first wave of anticipation. But H. E. Sundstrom, overnight supervisor of rescue operations said of an imminent rescue, "It definitely is not so. Whoever called for those ambulances didn't do so on our orders."

The rescuers encountered difficulty in trying to put an 800-gallon-a-minute pump into operation where the water was deepest. They hit bedrock with their drills 200 feet from the shaft. Ten other pumps were continuing to take out water at the rate of 3,200 gallons a minute.

Lamb to Work for McCarthy

Lamb, a lawyer, said he had no immediate plans other than "try to influence Democratic convention delegates" to support the Minnesota senator for the party nomination.

Hope Hopes to Become First Comedian to Become a Centenarian

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Bob Hope, who is only a short putt from being 65, has already set a goal for his 100th birthday.

"I'd still like to be around then," he said, "and playing in a show on the moon."

That isn't just one of the blithe-spirited comedian's five million catalogued jokes. He has a good chance of making history as the first professional laughman to become a centenarian.

"My grandfather lived to be a month short of 100," he remarked, "and I have a couple of uncles who are about 90 and still hale."

Keeping physically fit has also been a lifelong part of his philosophy. He holds his weight around a trim 175 pounds by regular golf sessions, long walks, and daily stretching exercises.

Over a luncheon of scrambled eggs, apple pie and black coffee, Hope complained mildly that recent reports of his wealth had been greatly exaggerated. "Lord, I got rich all of a sudden," he said, "One magazine listed I was worth about half a billion dollars, and then Fortune Magazine lists me in the $150-to-$200-million bracket. Now I'm waiting for Reader's Digest to come out and tell me how much I really have."

Public Health Picture — Alcoholism, Venereal Disease and Drug Use

By WILLIAM MORAN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Government health officials have pictured the nation as beset with burgeoning problems of alcoholism, mental illness, venereal disease and drug use.

On top of that, the officials said, health-care costs are skyrocketing.

In testimony before a House subcommittee they reported:

7th Costly Plane Has Crashed

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A seventh F111A fighter-bomber, the $5-million swing-wing jet developed from the controversial TFX program, has crashed.

Both pilots parachuted safely as the camouflaged plane carrying secret combat gear ploughed into the desert Wednesday and was demolished.

The Air Force described the flight as a routine training mission and released no details of the crash 60 miles north of Las Vegas.

The plane was similar to three lost recently in Vietnam. It was the eighth plane lost of two types developed from the TFX, the tactical fighter experimental program pushed by Robert S. McNamara when he was secretary of the defense. McNamara said he aimed at incorporating a common basic design for both the Air Force and Navy.

In 1967 a Navy version of the plane, designated F11B, crashed during a test program at Long Island, N.Y., killing two civilian test pilots.

Three F11A Air Force versions, carrying top secret bombing and navigational equipment on Vietnam combat missions out of Takli, Thailand, were lost shortly after the first arrived in Southeast Asia last March.

Although six planes were assigned to Takli, operational testing of the fighter-bomber has not been completed at Nellis Air Force Base, Nev., to develop tactics and doctrines for combat operation.

Neither the wreckage nor the crew was found of the first F11A to crash in Southeast Asia, within three days after going into combat.

referring again to the $150-to-$200-million estimate of his fortune, he said:

"If I could sell all the property I have at the value I place on it myself, it would come to about a third of that."

Hope, who rarely carries more than $50 in cash, owns a piece of the Cleveland Indians, an Ohio dairy, and has extensive other financial and real estate interests, including a 5,000-acre property in Southern California where he plans to produce his own pictures.

But the restless actor thrives on activity. He recently completed his 57th film, "The Private Navy of Sgt. O'Farrell," in which he plays an Army topknot who captures a Japanese submarine singlehandedly. Next he'll team with Jackie Gleason in "How to Commit Marriage."

The chores of film making rest lightly on him.

"I'm geared to it, and I still enjoy performing," he said, "If I didn't, I'd quit. The only real labor is in having to get out of bed so early. After that, somebody just has to point you toward the studio."

Bob, who is as self-made as a man can be, came to Cleveland from his native England at the age of four. As a boy he sold newspapers and worked in a shoe store, a drug store and a meat market before starting a career in show business that has won him some 750 awards for his performing skill and philanthropic zeal.

The testimony before a House appropriations subcommittee came from Dr. William N. Stewart, U.S. surgeon general; Dr. Stanley F. Yolles, director of the National Institute of Mental Health; and Dr. David J. Sencer, director of the National Communicable Disease Center. Their statements were made in March and released Wednesday.

Stewart said publicity about the dangers of LSD contributed to a decrease in its use by students but added: "There is no question that we have a problem in all economic groups and in all age groups."

Sencer said while there is adequate treatment for gonorrhea once it is detected, "the problem is we cannot diagnose it in females as well as in males."

When Prices Go Up the Consumer Is Always One Who Pays Dearly

By EDMUND R. DE MOCH
AP Business Writer
CHICAGO (AP) — If happiness is low food prices for the housewife and high crop prices for the farmer, there are plenty of unhappy people around.

The homemaker's complaint about high food prices and the farmer's lament over low income beat a melancholy tune.

How can both be true? The answer is both simple and complex—simple in that the reasons are easy enough to pinpoint and complex in that the middleman has so far defied solution.

Here are the basic factors:

The farmer normally cannot choose the time when he will sell. He usually has to sell at harvest—and pretty much at the offered price—or his crops spoil.

The cost of the middleman has risen sharply. This covers all the processing, packaging, and distribution that makes wheat into a loaf of bread on your table. The farmer and the purchaser pay these increased costs.

Buyers have become more selective. They want better foods prepared better. And this costs more.

Federal farm policy has, at times, created problems for the farmer.

Take the grain situation in 1967, for example. Secretary of Agriculture Or-

Tax Hike Is Tied to Cut in Spending

By JOE HALL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate-House conferees have agreed to President Johnson's 10 per cent income tax surcharge but tied it to a $8 billion spending cut he has said is against the national interest.

The conferees said Wednesday they had accepted these two key points which the Senate approved more than a month ago.

Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., chairman of the conferees as well as of the House Ways and Means Committee, voiced hope the group could complete work on many other amendments to the bill at a final session today.

The income-tax increase is the 10 per cent surcharge proposal applying to both individuals and corporations which the administration has been pushing since last August.

It would yield $10 billion on a yearly basis. It would last 15 months for individuals, from April 1 this year to June 30, 1969, and 18 months for corporations, retroactive from Jan. 1 this year to mid-1969.

About 17 million low-income taxpayers would be exempt. The $8 billion spending reduction proposal has drawn heavy fire from Johnson and other administration officials.

The President told a news conference last Thursday that to go beyond a $4 billion cut in expenditures for the next year "would injure the national inter-

County Needs to Fill Its Blood Quota

The Hempstead County Red Cross blood program is again in danger of being lost because of failure of Hempstead County people to give blood to the program.

The county is currently using 2½ pints for every pint contributed and the situation must be corrected if the county is to have a ready supply of blood for all emergencies.

To raise the 450 pints needed a special nine hour Radiothon will be conducted on KXAR Saturday, May 11th from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Each group will have 55 minutes with a goal of 55 pints or a pint a minute. Here is the schedule:

The bloodmobile will be at the Red River Vocational Technical School Monday, May 13th, and Tuesday, May 14th from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in Hope of securing 400 points to help Hempstead Phillips, Aquanette Smith, Mer-Grand County keep its vital blood procedures Smith, Norma Smith, Diane Smith. ## Long, Hard Bargaining Seen as U.S. Team Goes to Peace Parley

PARIS (AP) — North Vietnam's chief delegate to peace contacts with the United States arrived today, and his American counterpart was due tonight for talks starting Friday.

A crowd of 300, Vietnamese and Frenchmen, carrying flags and a banner, greeted Xuan Thuy, the Hanoi delegate, as his plane touched down after stops in Peking and Moscow.

No one cared to predict how long the Paris talks would last. But the big question in American minds was whether the Communists really want a peace settlement or planned to use the talks only to press for a bombing halt and other advantages for their military campaign in South Vietnam.

W. Averell Harriman, President Johnson's envoy, and his chief aides were scheduled to arrive tonight from Washington.

Xuan Thuy, the chief North Vietnamese negotiator, came by way of Peking and Moscow.

The first meeting between Harriman and Thuy was scheduled Friday in the former Majestic Hotel near the Arc de Triomphe.

U.S. officials expressed interest in French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville's speculation that the U.S. and North Vietnamese negotiators might move on to broad talks on ending the war as well as the scheduled preliminary discussions on the question of halting U.S. bombing of the North.

American officials said they did not know whether Hanoi had asked the French government to convey this view of the talks to the West.

U.S. authorities have made plain that Harriman would seek a military restraint by North Vietnam in return for what Hanoi lists as its priority topic: "The unconditional cessation of the U.S. bombing raids and all other acts of war against the Democratic Republic of Vietnam."

French diplomats in contact with North Vietnamese officials say Hanoi is confident that it will be able to attain its prime objective in the talks—the evacuation of U.S. troops from South Vietnam.

The North Vietnamese are reported to feel that the United States will eventually agree to a phased withdrawal.

Enemy Hits Saigon on Three Sides

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — The enemy struck hard at Saigon from three sides today but a U.S. spokesman said American forces had smashed a Viet Cong drive to push into the capital from the south and east.

On the eve of Paris peace talks, however, the enemy drove closer to the center of Saigon than at any time since the new offensive was launched Sunday.

U.S. military spokesmen said 2,000 American infantrymen from the 9th Division, armored personnel carriers, helicopter gunships and dive bombers had broken up—at least for the time being—the drive from the south and east.

Helicopter gunships also wrecked two launching pads loaded with rockets less than a mile from the city.

The U.S. Command announced 2,540 enemy soldiers have been killed since the assault began last Sunday.

Thousands of anguished, frightened civilians streamed into the center of the city, swelling the ranks of the homeless to more than 50,000.

The toll of civilian dead and wounded mounted to more than 2,000.

It was Saigon's worst day since Sunday, and new fears swept the city. Jets roared across the heart of the city, and moments later the thud of 500-pound bombs was heard. They shook the downtown section.

Blocks of Saigon's southern and eastern sections were destroyed under the pounding of U.S. and South Vietnamese dive-bombers and helicopter gunships. Some houses were set afire by the Viet Cong to cover their movements.

The U.S. Command called in hundreds more infantrymen, tanks and helicopter gunships to meet the Viet Cong drive, which late Wednesday had appeared to be tapering off. There were reports, however, that the Viet Cong had brought up reinforcements through the night, covering their infiltration with diversionary shelling at other points.

Despite the U.S. claim that America and South Vietnamese soldiers were killing 10 of the enemy for every American or South Vietnamese soldier slain in the Saigon fighting, the Viet Cong had plenty of punch left.

It was the first time in the Viet Cong's five-day-old "peace talks" offensive that the attack had come from the east, hitting in the dock area just across the river from the former U.S. Embassy building and within striking distance of the heart of the city.

Billowing black smoke towered over the edge of the city, but business went on as usual in most of Saigon.

Civilian casualties soared. A fire blazing at the eastern edge of Cholon, the Chinese quarter, burned out of control. NEW DELHI (AP) Mrs. Lalita Shastri, widow of Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri, walked up to the stage to receive a bouquet of roses, a cauliflower and two long radishes. It was a function organized by a zonal committee of the Kitchen Garden Association of Delhi.
There are 900 kitchen gardens in Delhi. The idea was strongly backed by Shastri as a measure to counter vegetable shortages that hit the capital almost every summer.

PORTRAIT of actress Elizabeth Taylor looks down on group of nuns leaving a Paris movie house. Sisters had viewed a special showing of a film on sex education. Some 1,500 persons attended the presentation as guests of a Catholic organization.

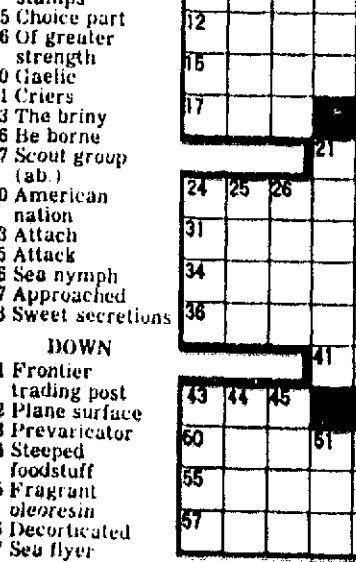

The blue or sulfur-bottomed whale is the largest known animal, living or extinct, growing to a record length of 108 feet and weighing over 125 tons. The World Almanac says. The huge prehistoric Brontosaurus probably weighed only 70 tons and was about 75 feet long. Ironically, the massive blue whale feeds on microscopic plankton.

What is A Mother?

To her family, she's special.

She's understanding,

a banquet chef, a short order cook,

a fountain of love, a chauffeur,

warmth and security.

She's clean socks, starched dresses,

a mender of hurts.

She's scrubbed ears,

a tender nurse, a maid, a queen.

She deserves a day of honor and tribute.

She deserves the love of those she loves.

Yes, she's very, very special.

This Sunday, you'll tell your mother

how much you care.

We'd like to tell all mothers, "We Care, too."

In the dairy industry, a big part of being better is being fussier. Borden's people have been the fussiest people in the world about milk for more than 110 years. That's why Borden's is the leader in dairy science. And that's why Borden's Milk always tastes fresh and sweet.

WANTED BY THE FBI

JAMES EARL RAY, also known as Eric Starvo Galt, Harvey Lowmyer, John Willard, James McBride, James Walton, W. C. Herron and James O'Conner.

James Earl Ray, a Missouri prison escapee, sought under the alias Eric Starvo Galt in connection with the gunshot slaying of civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., is one of the FBI's "Ten Most Wanted Fugitives." FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover ordered the special addition of Ray to the "Top Ten" list to insure widespread dissemination of Ray's photograph and description to speed his location.

Ray has been intensively sought since the murder of Dr. King on April 4, 1968, as he stood on the balcony of a Memphis, Tennessee, motel. An exhaustive FBI fingerprint search, comparing latent fingerprints uncovered in the Dr. King case against fingerprints of over 53,000 persons on whom wanted notices were posted, determined that Galt and Ray are identical.

A federal warrant, issued at Birmingham, Alabama, on April 17, 1968, charges Ray, under the alias of Galt, with conspiring to interfere with a Constitutional Right of a citizen. Ray, who escaped on April 23, 1967, from the Missouri State Penitentiary, is also sought for unlawful flight to avoid confinement for robbery. His long criminal record also includes convictions for burglary and forging U.S. Postal Money Orders.

A white American, born in Alton, Illinois, on March 10, 1928, Ray is 6'10" tall, weighs 163 to 174 pounds, has blue eyes and short brown hair. He has a nervous habit of tugging at an ear lobe and his left ear protrudes noticeably. Known as a "loner" and "drifter," Ray has worked as a baker, laborer and color matcher. He has taken dancing lessons and completed a course at a school of bartending.

Consider Ray armed and extremely dangerous. Report any information concerning him to the nearest FBI office.

Thousands Gamble in Caribbean

By EUGENE J. BROWN
The Danbury (Conn.) News-Times

DANBURY, Conn. (AP) — If gambling is an evil, thousands of North American tourists are willing to jet several thousand miles across the water to meet that evil head on among the Caribbean islands.

The gambling fraternity does have the choice of flying to Las Vegas, Nev., where you don't need an up-to-date smallpox vaccination but where you do meet the ever present Internal Revenue Service agents who may sidle up to you in the midst of a winning streak and whisper in your ear: "Don't forget to declare your winnings on your Form 1040."

And if you lose, what glamor is there losing in just another of the 50 states when you could say: "They took me in Curacao; they busted me in Antigua; look at my tropical tan."

But without junkets gambling would be a minor enterprise. Briefly the junket is a chartered plane or a group of tourists who pay $300 and get everything else free including the free chips.

A junket requires a junketeer or an agent, or a tour guide as he may be called. Its job is to develop tours from his particular city for a particular Las Vegas casino. So successful is this system that the plane traffic at Las Vegas looks like Kennedy Airport.

The small islands of the Caribbean, short of income to meet the needs of their poverty-stricken population, have not been blind to the "Vegas junket syndrome."

With their tropical beaches, low-salaried help and cooperative governments, the gambling syndicates have set up shop on the islands by simply taking over the junket format.

In a manner these gambling junkets have an "almost-free" hooker attached. For instance, if a person wanted to go to Antigua or practically any other island in the Caribbean for the purpose of trying his luck against the casino odds, his fare plus four or five days at a luxurious hotel including most of the extras would be $500. He could take his wife along too (and many do) for only $225 extra. And in addition he would receive $500 free in nonnegotiable gambling chips.

The term "nonnegotiable" designates the chips that are to be used for gambling only and can't be cashed immediately upon arrival at your destination.

These special chips are "seed" to start your streak of luck. It would be indeed a rare bird who failed to succumb to the gaming tables when he or she is sure that he can win on his free chips. So sure is the house that you will gamble and lose, that if you show a sincere desire to play the games, they will even give you the cash for your free chips. All you've got to do is play a little and pray a lot.

Gambling with free "junket" chips is much the same as eating peanuts. Whoever stopped at one peanut? There is obviously something wrong with the logic of those who go on a gambling junket.

For the casino to give you $500 of free chips which reimburses you for the $500 junket expenses, they must expect you to lose. To break even the house must figure on your losing your $500 free chip money plus an average of $500 in hard cash. Thus the average player is out his $500 tour expense plus $500 in cash.

The favorite casino gambling games seem to be of the standard American variety: blackjack or 21, roulette and dice.

WHERE'D YOU DRIVE IN?

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — The designer of a coin-operated downtown parking lot here apparently either believes in Barnum's comment about suckers or thinks motorists would rather pay 20 cents than drive one-half block.

The lot extends across half a city block from a fairly busy street to one that's not so busy. If a motorist uses the entrance on the busy street side, he pays 50 cents; if he drives half a block further, and enters from the other street, the charge is 30 cents.

Columbia Has Reopened for Classes

NEW YORK (AP) — Besieged Columbia University reopened its doors today amid chaos and controversy and a two-century-old tradition of formal classroom teaching apparently ended for the rest of the semester.

Columbia College, the 25,000-student Ivy League university's oldest and largest unit, decided Sunday to end formal classes almost four weeks before the official end of the term May 29.

Some other units of the university were expected to follow Columbia College's lead but it was not known immediately what they would do.

The confusion was heightened by rebel students who renewed their two-week-old protest by calling for a boycott of classes. Minor scuffling broke out at several pots this morning as staff members and unsympathetic students walked through picket lines set up to enforce the boycott.

Fewer than 200 students manned picket lines before a dozen buildings.

Henry Coleman, the acting dean of Columbia College who was held inside his office for almost 24 hours when the student protest began April 23, predicted the university "will not be back to normal this semester."

The classroom doors swung open today for the first time in 10 days. The student protest began over construction of a gymnasium in a park buffering Negro Harlem and the university and over a government-oriented defense project partly sponsored by Columbia.

The gymnasium project has since been suspended but that apparent victory for the rebel students has obviously not ended their protest.

The rebels now claim to have the support of 5,000 students for their boycott. They issued a bulletin today listing more than 50 "liberation" classes in such subjects as "avant-garde literature," "anarchism," "corporate liberalism" and "Columbia and the warfare state."

Takes Over Local Plant

GUY AHERN, Manager, Wynnewood Products Company

3 Arkansans Killed in War

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department released the names Monday of three Arkansans killed in Vietnam, two in hostile action and one a non-hostile death.

Those killed in action were Army Pfc. Danny R. West, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas K. West of Fort Smith, and Marine Cpl. Paul A. Harrison, son of Wilbur Harrison of near Huttig.

The Hope Industrial Family gained a new name recently with the acquisition of the Southern Plaswood Plant facilities by Wynnewood Products Company of Dallas, Texas. The plant is now back in operation, working two shifts and in addition to turning out particle board, they are presently evaluating the existing plant equipment with the thought in mind of replacing some of it with some new and modern pieces.

Guy Ahern has been transferred from one of the other Wynnewood plants to be the manager of the local plant. Mr. Ahern will be living in the Company owned house in Oakhaven and plans to move his family here soon.

The company manufactures a high quality particle board that is used for core stock by the furniture manufacturers.

Devil's Tower, in northeastern Wyoming, was the first national monument to be established in the United States.
